11. From my examination of the plea agreement I am advised that you are pleading guilty to count one as contained in the bill of indictment.

Read count(s) of the bill of indictment to which the defendant is pleading guilty. Are you pleading guilty to that offense?

YES: X

NO: _____

The law requires that I advise you of the essential elements of such an offense. The elements of the offenses to which you are pleading guilty are as follows:

Count One:

8 U.S.C. § 1326(a) and (b)(2)

Any alien who (1) has been denied admission, excluded, deported, or removed or has departed the United States while an order of exclusion, deportation, or removal is outstanding, and thereafter (2) enters, attempts to enter, or is at any time found in, the United States, unless

(A) prior to his reembarkation at a place outside the United States or his application for admission from foreign contiguous territory, the Attorney General has expressly consented to such alien's reapplying for admission; or

(B) with respect to an alien previously denied admission and removed, unless such alien shall establish that he was not required to obtain such advance consent under this chapter or any prior Act; and

(2) whose removal was subsequent to a conviction for commission of an aggravated felony, such alien shall be fined under such title, imprisoned not more than 20 years', or both.

Elements:

1. That you are an alien;
2. That at the time and place described in the bill of indictment you had previously been arrested and deported from the United States;

3. That your deportation or removal was subsequent to your conviction for the commission of an aggravated felony;
4. That at the time and place described in the bill of indictment you had entered or were found in the United States;
5. That at such time you had not applied for or obtained the express consent from the Attorney General of the United States or the Department of Homeland security for your reentry into the United States; and ~~Secret~~
6. You did such all such acts unlawfully, knowingly, intentionally, and willfully.

Penalty:

I am also required by law to advise you concerning the maximum and minimum penalties prescribed by law for such an offense. Those maximum and minimum penalties are as follows:

The maximum possible penalty for this offense is a term of imprisonment of not more than 20 years', a fine not to exceed the amount of $250,000, or both, a term of supervised release of not more than 3 years' and a $100 special assessment:

YES: X

NO: _____

- d) Do you understand that the government would be required to prove that the unlawful act(s) were committed knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and unlawfully?

YES: X

NO: _____

15. If the court imposes an active term of imprisonment of more than one year, the court is required also to order a term of what is called "supervised release," and a term of supervised release may be ordered in other circumstances. This means that after a defendant is released from prison, there are certain terms and conditions they will be required to follow. The length of supervised release usually ranges from one to five years, but may be more or less than that for certain offenses. Do you understand the term "supervised release" as the court has explained them to you?

YES: X

NO: _____

16. Do you understand that if you violate the terms and conditions of supervised release, you could be returned to prison for an additional period of time?

YES: X NO:

23. Do you understand that in some circumstances you may receive a sentence that is different - that is, either higher or lower - than that called for by the Guidelines?

YES: X NO:

24. Do you understand that if the sentence is more severe than you expect or the court does not accept the Government's sentencing recommendation, you will still be bound by your plea and have no right to withdraw the plea of guilty?

YES: X NO:

25. Do you understand that the court has the discretion, in appropriate circumstances, to order you to make restitution to any victim of the offense. The court may also, in the appropriate circumstance, require you to pay the costs of your confinement in prison or costs of supervision or special investigative costs or all of these costs. The court may also require you to forfeit property involved in the offenses. Do you understand these requirements as I have explained them to you?

YES: X NO:

26. Do you understand you have a right to plead not guilty, to have a speedy trial before a judge and jury, to summons witnesses to testify in your behalf, and to confront witnesses against you?

YES: X

NO: _____

27. Do you understand that if you exercise your right to trial you would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, that you would not be required to testify, that you would be presumed innocent, and the burden would be on the Government to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you understand all of these rights?

YES: X

NO: _____

28. Do you understand that by entering a plea of guilty you forfeit and waive (or give up) your right to plead not guilty, to a trial by jury and at that trial the right to assistance of counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against you, and the right against compelled self-incrimination or any other rights associated with a jury trial. Do you understand that by entering this plea of guilty you are waiving (or giving up) all of these rights. There will be no trial. If your plea of guilty is accepted, there will be one more hearing where the district court will determine:

- (a) Whether there is a factual basis for your plea; and
(b) What sentence to impose.

Do you understand that?

YES: X

NO: _____
